*We pride ourselves on sourcing the finest matcha, carefully selected from the green fields of Shizuoka, Japan. Our commitment to quality begins with the cultivation process, where only the most tender tea leaves are hand-picked and meticulously processed to preserve their vibrant color and delicate flavor.

When it comes to preparing matcha, we follow the ancient traditions that have been passed down through generations. Each step is executed with precision, from the measurement of the matcha powder to the gentle whisking technique that creates a creamy, frothy finish.

We believe that enjoying matcha is more than just savoring a beverage; it's a ritual that nourishes the body and soul.

The ChaCha Bar has sourced all its ingredients carefully to be sure they are beneficial to our bodies and to our minds. Let's treat our bodies like the temples they are.
